The UBC Department of Psychiatry is pleased to announce

A Day for Psychiatric Educators

on Friday, June 7, 2013

from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

at the Simon K. Y. Lee Hong Kong Ballroom

(2205 Lower Mall, UBC Vancouver Campus).

This event is open to all undergraduate and postgraduate psychiatric teaching faculty.

Guest Presenters:

- Dr. Jason Frank - The Challenge of Competence: 21st Century Physician Assessment & the End of Time. (Director, Specialty Education, Strategy, and Standards, Office of Education, RCPSC. Associate Professor, Faculty of Medicine, University of Ottawa).

- Dr. Gurdeep Parhar - Equity and Professionalism in Psychiatry. (Associate Dean, Equity and Professionalism, Faculty of Medicine. Acting Vice-President, Equity Office, UBC).

- Dr. Satish Shrikhande - Dancing to the Tune of DSM V.

- Dr. Jon Fleming - How to improve my In-training Evaluation Report (ITER).

- Dr. Don Miliken - Evaluating Clinical Reasoning Skills at the Undergraduate Level: the Key Determinants of Student Proficiency.

- Dr. Kathryn Fung and Dr. Wei-Yi Song - *Teaching learners how to disclose: managing an adverse event.

Event learning objectives:

- Enhancing CanMEDS competencies in psychiatric teaching
- Teaching professionalism in psychiatry
- Early identification/direct feedback to students with deficiencies
- DSM V in psychiatric teaching
- Teaching students to present adverse news to patients and their families

RCPSC Section 1 Study Credits to be advised.

Online registration and other information on this event will be available starting mid April 2013.

Sponsored by: the UBC Department of Psychiatry and the Institute of Mental Health.