A LUCID CELEBRATION: WRITERS IN OUR MIDST

MONDAY, JUNE 17
7:15pm

To celebrate the end of a successful first year, Lucid Book Club has invited our talented members to share their own writing at a special group reading.

Join us for an evening of readings from award-winning novelists, journalists and emerging new talent.

ALL WELCOME!

Robin Evans' stories have appeared in The Fiddlehead, This Magazine, subTERRAIN, The Danforth Review and a few other places. She's currently completing her MFA in Creative Writing at UBC and mentors other emerging writers through UBC's non-credit writing program, Booming Ground.

Annabel Lyon is on UBC's Creative Writing Faculty. The Golden Mean, her first novel, was a Canadian bestseller and won the Rogers Writers' Trust Fiction Prize and was nominated for the Scotiabank Giller Prize, the Governor General's Award and the Commonwealth Writers' Prize.

Anne Stone teaches Creative Writing and Literature at Capilano University. She is the author of three novels: Jacks, Hush and, most recently, Delible. Anne will be reading from her manuscript in progress.

Douglas Todd writes about spirituality, diversity and psychology for The Vancouver Sun. He is the author or editor of three books, including Cascadia: The Elusive Utopia. He has received more than 30 awards, including for a feature about his father's struggle with schizophrenia.

Supported by the Institute of Mental Health and Green College, UBC.
