The International Society of Applied Neuroimaging
Presents, Putting SPECT To Work in Your Practice...Tomorrow Morning!

Monday, June 10, 2013 7:00 – 9:30 p.m.
An Unofficial Satellite Symposium to the Society of Nuclear Medicine and Molecular Imaging Annual Meeting

Terminal City Club
837 West Hastings St. Vancouver, BC
2 Blocks from the Convention Centre

Please RSVP to Dr. Theodore Henderson, President - I.S.A.N. at: thesynapticspace7@gmail.com

1) Establishing a functional neuroimaging program - the LGH experience
   - Rob Tarzwell, MD, FRCPC. – Clinical Assistant Professor, Faculty of Medicine University of British Columbia & staff physician, Depts of Psychiatry and Nuclear Medicine, Lions Gate Hospital

2) Changing the direction of autism care (with case examples)
   - J. Michael Uszler, MD — Medical Director of the Nuclear Medicine Department at St Johns Health Center in Santa Monica, CA

3) Co-morbidities and Brain SPECT: a gift and a challenge. Examples from TBI, non-convulsive epilepsy & toxic injury. – Dan G. Pavel  M.D. Director, PathFinder Brain SPECT, at The Neuroscience Center, Chicago (Deerfield) IL

4) How SPECT can change the diagnosis of complicated ADHD (with case examples)
   - Theodore Henderson, MD, PhD – President, The Synaptic Space

5) Stump the experts - bring your cases for the expert panel to discuss

No-host bar and no-host dinner buffet will be offered.
Not officially endorsed by the SNMMI.