Objectives
1. Research on topics of societal importance based on novel, rigorous and interdisciplinary approach
2. Partnership with end-user or community partner
3. Address variety of issues, including environment, health, literacy, socialization, sustainability, health care delivery, poverty alleviation, population health & mobility, and others

Criteria
a) Active participation from co-applicant community partner(s)
b) Potential benefits to community
c) Specific goals achievable within 1-3 year time frame
d) Interdisciplinary collaboration

Letter of Intent
Submit by Thursday May 1, 2014

The Wall Solutions Initiative provides opportunities for University of British Columbia researchers, community organizations and other partners to work collaboratively towards solutions using innovative research approaches. We welcome projects with a transformative vision and encourage you to bring the best minds to address the problem.

Funding available: up to $50,000
Stage 1 Letter of Intent May 1
Stage 2 Full Application Aug 1

Information:
www.pwias.ubc.ca