How can psychotherapy help with the symptoms of psychosis?

Dr. Mahesh Menon, PhD, RPsych
Psychologist, Vancouver Coastal Health
Clinical Assistant Professor, UBC

Objectives:

- Overview of cognitive biases associated with delusions and hallucinations
- Briefly describe two empirically supported psychotherapeutic interventions for psychosis (Metacognitive training and CBT for psychosis)
- Describe ongoing research studies on psychosocial interventions for psychosis

When: Friday, October 10th, 2014
Time: 8:00 – 9:00 AM (full breakfast served)
Where: Lions Gate Hospital - Auditorium

Due to limited seating and catering, please RSVP
Dr. Apu Chakraborty at Apu.Chakraborty@vch.ca by October 7th, 2014

Sponsored through an unrestricted educational grant from Lundbeck Canada Inc.