The UBC Psychology Clinic Presents

a Workshop on:

Perfectionism

When:
Saturday, June 4, 2016
9:00 AM - 4:30 PM

Where:
University of British Columbia
Room 2012, Earth Sciences Building (ESB)
2207 Main Mall
Vancouver, BC

Presenters:

Dr. Paul Hewitt, R.Psych.

Dr. Hewitt is a full professor in the department of psychology at UBC and a practicing clinical psychologist in Vancouver, BC. A Fellow of the Section on Clinical Psychology of the Canadian Psychological Association, he has been conducting research on perfectionism and psychopathology since his undergraduate training. He has published over 150 refereed journal articles, 20 chapters, and 4 books. Dr. Hewitt's 30 years of clinical work has focused on individuals with perfectionism and their attendant difficulties, such as early trauma, depression, anxiety, and interpersonal problems. He also conducts workshops, training seminars, symposia, and educational media presentations on perfectionism and clinical psychology more generally.

Dr. Samuel Mikail, C.Psych., ABPP

Dr. Mikail is an American Board of Professional Psychology certified clinical psychologist. He also serves as the senior consultant for mental health with Sun Life Financial. His clinical work and research publications have spanned the fields of mental health, health psychology, rehabilitation, and spirituality. Dr. Mikail also has extensive experience in the supervision and training of psychology and psychiatry residents and functioned as the Director of the Royal Ottawa Health Care Group Psychology Internship. He is a Fellow of the Canadian Psychological Association and the Section on Clinical Psychology. Dr. Mikail received the award for outstanding clinical supervision by the Canadian Council of Professional Psychology Programs.

Early Bird Workshop Fee (before April 1, 2016):
Professionals $175
Students/trainees $75

Workshop Fee (after April 1, 2016):
Professionals $225
Students/trainees $90

Advanced Registration Required: Please contact Armin (by email at clinic@psych.ubc.ca or by phone at (604-822-3005) for registration or any inquiries.