Reference #: C-181104

Assistant/Associate Professor (Research)

Faculty of Medicine – Department of Psychiatry and the Douglas Mental Health University Institute

Position description

The Department of Psychiatry at McGill University, Douglas Mental Health University Institute and the Mental Health and Society Research Program (Mental Health) invite applications for a position in the area of mental health services and policy research or psychiatric epidemiology/population health. The successful applicant will hold an academic appointment as a member of the Contract Academic Staff at the rank of full-time Assistant or Associate Professor (Research).

McGill is one of Canada’s leading research-intensive universities with students from over 140 countries. The university is located in Montreal, a diverse and cosmopolitan city with great cultural and linguistic diversity.

With over 50 researchers spanning the full range of mental health research (neuroscience, clinical, services, policy and epidemiology/population health), the Douglas Institute Research Centre has been an international leader in mental health research for more than 30 years. It provides an ideal environment for conducting interdisciplinary research related to any aspect of mental health.

Job Duties

- Carry out an independently-funded research program in the field of Epidemiology and Epigenetics
- Leading studies supported by Sackler foundation funding
- Independently acquire sufficient funds to support training of graduate students at the MSc and PhD level.
- Active involvement in all aspects of McGill’s academic mission, and demonstrate strong commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion in all areas (research, teaching, supervision of graduate students and involvement in academic and administrative committees).
Qualifications and Education

Requirements

• PhD in epidemiology, psychology, social work, health economics, sociology, public health or a related field of research with advanced Post-Doctoral training.
• Exhibit evidence of both an exceptionally strong research productivity and the ability to attract competitive funding
• Proven potential to influence mental health services and/or policy
• Working knowledge of French, or a commitment to acquiring it within a few years of appointment, is essential.

Assets

• Demonstrated interest in and capacity to integrate one or more advanced technological tools into research (eg. for recruitment, assessment, data analysis)

JOB DETAILS

Job Type: Contract Academic Staff
Rank: Assistant/Associate Professor
Job status: Full-time
Salary: Salary will be commensurate with qualifications and experience
Posting period: 30 days from date of posting

APPLICATION PROCESS

Applications must be submitted on-line at: http://www.mcgill.ca/medicine-academic/positionsavailable

The following supporting documents are required:

- a cover letter & curriculum vitae (as 1 pdf document)
- statement of research (if including other documents, combine to make 1 pdf)
- the names and contact information of three referees
McGill University hires on the basis of merit and is strongly committed to equity and diversity within its community. We welcome and encourage applications from racialized persons/visible minorities, women, Indigenous persons, persons with disabilities, ethnic minorities, and persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, as well as from all qualified candidates with the skills and knowledge to productively engage with diverse communities.

McGill further recognizes and fairly considers the impact of leaves (e.g., family care or health-related) that may contribute to career interruptions or slowdowns. Candidates are encouraged to signal any leave that affected productivity, may have had an effect on their career path. This information will be considered to ensure the equitable assessment of the candidate’s record.

McGill implements an employment equity program and encourages members of designated equity groups to self-identify. It further seeks to ensure the equitable treatment and full inclusion of persons with disabilities by striving for the implementation of universal design principles transversally, across all facets of the University community, and through accommodation policies and procedures. Persons with disabilities who anticipate needing accommodations for any part of the application process may contact, in confidence, Professor Angela Campbell, Associate Provost (Equity and Academic Policies) by email or phone at 514-398-1660.

All qualified applicants are encouraged to apply; however, in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.