The Clinical Faculty Award for Career Excellence in Clinical Teaching recognizes senior Clinical Faculty members who have demonstrated sustained excellence in teaching over the course of their careers.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

This award is open to all Clinical Faculty members appointed in the Faculty of Medicine who have demonstrated sustained excellence in teaching over the course of their careers. Nominees must have held a Clinical Faculty appointment for at least 10 years, and must hold an active Clinical Faculty appointment at the time of nomination.

Nominations can be made by any two Clinical or Full-Time Faculty members, medical students, residents or any other students in a clinical program within the Faculty of Medicine that involves clinical teaching. A signed nomination form (attached) should be accompanied by a brief citation for use at the Awards Ceremony, a letter from the nominators, letters of support, and a summary of peer and student evaluations during the past 5 years. Nominators will complete all documentation and submit the completed nomination package to the Dean. After checking for eligibility and completeness, the Dean will forward dossiers to the Adjudication Committee. Nominations must be submitted to the Dean of Medicine no later than 4:00 pm on Friday, May 15, 2020 (strict deadline).

NOMINATION GENERAL GUIDELINES:

The Adjudication Committee will resolve questions concerning eligibility. An Award may not be granted every year. The identities of the nominees will not be made public unless they win the award. Decisions made by the Adjudication Committee are final and may not be appealed. Posthumous awards will not be made. Nominators should not expect staff members of the Dean’s Office or Adjudication Committee to assist with the preparation of a nomination beyond general advice concerning the regulations and proper forms to use; nor will they offer opinions as to a nomination’s chances of success.

JUDGING CRITERIA: (to be addressed in the nomination letter)

Nominee has demonstrated sustained excellence in teaching for at least 10 years.
Nominee’s excellence in teaching is evidenced by evaluations of students and/or residents and/or peers.
Nominee has inspired, influenced and motivated students, residents and peers.
Nominee has had a major impact on students’ and/or residents’ acquisition of clinical knowledge, skill and judgment.

ADJUDICATION COMMITTEE:

The Clinical Faculty Awards Adjudication Committee will consist of a Chair (Director, Clinical Faculty Affairs) and four other Clinical Faculty members from the Faculty of Medicine, chosen by the Chair:

1. representative from Postgraduate Education
2. representative from the Clinical Faculty Affairs Committee
3. previous recipient
4. representative from a non-MD professional program
The Clinical Faculty Award for Excellence in Clinical Teaching recognizes Clinical Faculty members who have demonstrated excellence in clinical teaching at a Clinical Academic Campus.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

This award is open to all Clinical Faculty members appointed in the Faculty of Medicine who have demonstrated excellence in clinical teaching at a Clinical Academic Campus. Nominees must hold an active Clinical Faculty member at the time of nomination.

Nominations can be made by any two Clinical or Full-Time Faculty members, medical students, residents or any other students in a clinical program within the Faculty of Medicine that involves clinical teaching. A signed nomination form (attached) should be accompanied by a brief citation for use at the Awards Ceremony, a letter from the nominators, letters of support, and a summary of peer and student evaluations during the past 5 years. Nominators will complete all documentation and submit the completed nomination package to the Dean. After checking for eligibility and completeness, the Dean will forward dossiers to the Adjudication Committee.

Nominations must be submitted to the Dean of Medicine no later than 4:00 pm on Friday, May 15, 2020 (strict deadline).

NOMINATION GENERAL GUIDELINES:

The Adjudication Committee will resolve questions concerning eligibility. An Award may not be granted every year. The identities of the nominees will not be made public unless they win the award. Decisions made by the Adjudication Committee are final and may not be appealed. Posthumous awards will not be made. Nominators should not expect staff members of the Dean’s Office or Adjudication Committee to assist with the preparation of a nomination beyond general advice concerning the regulations and proper forms to use; nor will they offer opinions as to a nomination’s chance of success.

JUDGING CRITERIA: (to be addressed in the nomination letter)

Nominees have developed effective teaching methods or materials for clinical teaching.
Nominee’s excellence in teaching is evidenced by evaluations of students and/or residents and/or peers.
Nominee has inspired, influenced and motivated students, residents and peers.
Nominee has had a major impact on students’ and/or residents’ acquisition of clinical knowledge, skill and judgment.

ADJUDICATION COMMITTEE:

The Clinical Faculty Awards Adjudication Committee will consist of a Chair (Director, Clinical Faculty Affairs) and four other Clinical Faculty members from the Faculty of Medicine, chosen by the Chair:

(1) representative from Postgraduate Education
(2) representative from the Clinical Faculty Affairs Committee
(3) previous recipient
(4) representative from a non-MD professional program

1 BC Cancer Agency, BC Children’s Hospital, BC Women’s Hospital & Health Centre, Kelowna General Hospital, Royal Columbian Hospital, Royal Jubilee Hospital, St. Paul’s Hospital, Surrey Memorial Hospital, Vancouver General Hospital, Victoria General Hospital, University Hospital of Northern BC
THE UNIVERSITY OF BRITISH COLUMBIA
FACULTY OF MEDICINE
2020 CLINICAL FACULTY AWARD FOR EXCELLENCE IN COMMUNITY PRACTICE TEACHING

The Clinical Faculty Award for Excellence in Community Practice Teaching recognizes Clinical Faculty members throughout British Columbia who have demonstrated excellence in teaching and made an educational impact in a local community.

NOMINATION PROCESS:

This award is open to all Clinical Faculty members appointed in the Faculty of Medicine who have demonstrated excellence in teaching in a community practice setting and made an educational impact in a local community. Nominees must hold an active Clinical Faculty appointment at the time of nomination.

Nominations can be made by any two Clinical or Full-Time Faculty members, medical students, residents or any other students in a clinical program within the Faculty of Medicine that involves clinical teaching. A signed nomination form (attached) should be accompanied by a brief citation for use at the Awards Ceremony, a letter from the nominators, letters of support, and a summary of peer and student evaluations during the past 5 years. Nominators will complete all documentation and submit the completed nomination package to the Dean. After checking for eligibility and completeness, the Dean will forward dossiers to the Adjudication Committee.

Nominations must be submitted to the Dean of Medicine no later than 4:00 pm on Friday, May 15, 2020 (strict deadline).

NOMINATION GENERAL GUIDELINES:

The Adjudication Committee will resolve questions concerning eligibility. An Award may not be granted every year. The identities of the nominees will not be made public unless they win the award. Decisions made by the Adjudication Committee are final and may not be appealed. Posthumous awards will not be made. Nominators should not expect staff members of the Dean’s Office or Adjudication Committee to assist with the preparation of a nomination beyond general advice concerning the regulations and proper forms to use; nor will they offer opinions as to a nomination’s chance of success.

JUDGING CRITERIA: (to be addressed in the nomination letter)

Nominee has made an educational impact in a local community.
Nominee’s excellence in teaching is evidenced by evaluations of students and/or residents and/or peers.
Nominee has inspired, influenced and motivated students, residents and peers.
Nominee has had a major impact on students’ and/or residents’ acquisition of clinical knowledge, skill and judgment.

ADJUDICATION COMMITTEE:

The Clinical Faculty Awards Adjudication Committee will consist of a Chair (Director, Clinical Faculty Affairs) and four other Clinical Faculty members from the Faculty of Medicine, chosen by the Chair:

1. representative from Postgraduate Education
2. representative from the Clinical Faculty Affairs Committee
3. previous recipient
4. representative from a non-MD professional program